

33 Years Experience in Arizona

As Miner, Farmer and Business Man has helped to thoroughly and completely qualify

P. J. MILLER

Democratic Candidate for nomination as Corporation Commissioner. He knows Arizona and the needs of its people, and is acquainted with actual conditions in every county.

The bulk of the commission's business is with telephone, electric, gas, water, and mining corporations, so a commissioner, to be qualified, should know of something besides railroad support Miller and you will be supporting a business man for a business administration.

I. EICHENBRONER FOR COUNTY SUPERVISOR

Subject to the Democratic Primaries Sept. 12, 1916.
Residence—711 East Adams St.

Having been solicited by a number of prominent business men and farmers to become a candidate for the Board of Supervisors of Maricopa County I have decided to place myself before the people of this county for this office.

I was born in Albany, N. Y., fifty-five years ago. Was in the mercantile business in that city for twenty-five years; for the last fifteen years I have been a resident of Phoenix. Believing always that Phoenix and Maricopa County had a bright future, I have shown my faith by investing all of my resources in this valley. My investments are all in the way of real estate. I believe there can be a saving to the taxpayers of this county, which will also mean a saving for myself. My success in my own business has been founded on conservative, safe and economical business principles. I would expect to apply those same principles to the office of supervisor.

This is one of the most important offices in the county in which the people are interested. It is vitally important that men are placed in this office who have the people's welfare at heart. I would expect to handle the people's money in the same manner that I handled my own.

Have made no political promises, will not use this office and its opportunities to further my own or any one else's political future. Believing always in the principle of the most good for the greatest number of people, independent of all political combines and machines and standing for economy, which means lower taxation and a square deal to all, I place myself in the hands of the democrats of Maricopa county. My references are: Ask any man who knows me. I believe Phoenix, absolutely, should elect a Supervisor from within the City of Phoenix; because Phoenix pays one-third of the taxes of Maricopa County, and Phoenix is the capital of the empire state.

Only new candidate running for County Supervisor in the City of Phoenix. This is the first time I have ever run for a public office.

I advocate good county roads and I am a friend of the working man
I. EICHENBRONER.
